

Gargi College,
University of Delhi,
Siri Fort Road, Siri Fort Institutional area New Delhi 110049

Gargi College, University of Delhi, invites sealed quotations from Delhi-based contemporary choreographers for undertaking the choreography, training, and production-related requirements for the choreography production being undertaken by Sparx, the choreography Dance Society of Gargi College.

For information regarding the dance style/theme selected by the Society and other relevant details, interested choreographers may contact at (sparx.gargichoreo@gmail.com). We are looking for a choreographer who brings creativity, originality, strong technical knowledge, and a collaborative approach to the creative process, and who can work closely with our dancers to develop a compelling production.

Requirements

The interested choreographer should:

- * Be willing to undertake both choreography and training of the dancers.
- * Conduct body conditioning and physical training sessions as required for the production.
- * Commit to a minimum of 35 sessions, with each session being approximately 3-4 hours.
- * Have a strong understanding and experience in Contemporary Dance.
- * Approach the creative process with originality and creativity.
- * Be collaborative and open to working closely with the student dancers and the society throughout the production process.
- * Be able to commit to the complete production process and timeline as decided in coordination with the society and the college.
- * The team will require guidance till its last competition.

Submission of Quotations

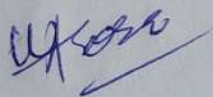

Considering the requirements mentioned above, interested choreographers after contacting us on our mail, are requested to submit their sealed quotations in an envelope within 7 days of this notice, that is 4th October, Sunday. in the name of:

"The Principal, Gargi College, Siri Fort Road, New Delhi – 110049."

Please clearly mention "QUOTATION FOR SPARX" on the envelope.

We look forward to collaborating with a passionate and creative choreographer to bring the vision of our Annual Production 2026-27 to life.

Warm regards,

Prof. Vandna Luthra
(Principal)

Dr. Sumant Meena
(Teacher convenor)